WHY LAW

In the last several years, the legal profession has experienced staggering growth. A steady rise in profits and revenues expanded headcounts, and significant salary increases have provided plenty of job opportunities in a broad range of legal positions. Studying law offers the opportunity to develop a range of skills and explore many aspects of human life. It gives you the chance to sharpen your mind, strengthen your understanding and deepen your experience across the full range of humanities and social sciences. You acquire both breadth of understanding and depth in the areas that interest you most. Law should therefore appeal to those who want to develop both abstract thinking and practical problem-solving. It's easy to see why you don't have to become a lawyer just because you've done a law degree; many choose other paths. A law degree can give you the skills to be a successful lawyer but also a successful producer, politician, manager, journalist, diplomat or police officer; a law degree equips you for almost any profession that requires intellectual strength combined with a practical approach to the world.

Following are the reason for choosing the carrier in Law

- A career in the legal profession brings with it a certain level of power and respect. It will provide you with various opportunities to serve the society.
- Lawyers often serve as the voice of those people or groups of people who cannot speak out for themselves such as poor, children, women, senior citizens etc.
- Specialized Practice Areas: A career in Legal profession provides diverse specialized areas of practice like Criminal law, Civil law, Family law, Taxation and so on
- Global Perspective: More Firms and Corporations are crossing International borders and hence widening the scope of opportunities to law students on an international level.

WHY SCLC
