National Seminar on "Analyzing Family Laws: A Need of an Evolving Society"

7th March 2020

India is a secular country and a wide number of religions are freely practiced. People solemnize marriages in accordance with religious rituals and ceremonies, which are mostly codified by statutory personal laws. Therefore, the matrimonial laws in India, including laws on marriage, divorce and other connected issues, are essentially governed by the personal laws of the parties depending on their religion. Presently Indian Society is going through the phase of transformation. This is the unique situation where society is facing different problems such as dowry death, honour killing, same sex relationship, increasing rate of divorce, live in relationship etc. There is urgent need to analyze the present laws which will determine its effectiveness in consideration with the present challenges. With this objective, Marathwada Mitra Mandal's Shankarrao Chavan Law College. Pune had organized one day National Seminar on "Analyzing Family Laws: A Need of an Evolving Society" on 7th March 2020.
