OBJECTIVES OF DEPARTMENT

The Marathwada Mitra Mandal's Shankarrao Chavan Law College has started Post Graduate Department in July 2010. The department is affiliated with the University of Pune and the syllabus and other rules governing the Post Graduate Dept are provided by Savitribai Phule Pune University, Government of Maharashtra, and University Grants Commission, New Delhi. The 11th Batch of LL.M. is going to pass this year from the College.

The object behind establishing the Post-Graduation Dept was to train the students in different research techniques, methods, and teaching Pedagogy.

The eligibility for the LL.M. Course is that the candidate should have either passed LL.B./B.A.LL.B. of three- or five-year law degree. Admissions will be given as per the selection procedure/ adopted by the respective college, in accordance conditions laid down by the University of Pune. Reservation and relaxation will be as per the university rules.

Presently, there are 113 students in Post Graduate Department, 53 Students in LL.M. IInd, and 60 students in LL.M. Ist Year. The University has changed the Syllabus in July 2014 and accepted Choice Based Credit System. The main feature of the Credit System is that Students have the choice to opt for subjects from giving syllabus and they can opt for subjects that may not be from their area of specialization. The Credit System has introduced different subjects with different credits i.e. 4 credits etc. The syllabus provides specialization from the first semester to the last semester. The University has provided specialization into two subjects for LL.M. i.e. International Law & Corporate law. The University has continued with the semester pattern. The duration of LL.M. course in law colleges affiliated to University is two years and four semesters.

SEMESTER PATTERN

This semester's pattern is more effective for better user's and focused understanding of the subjects. Semester Pattern keeps students busy for the duration of the course and allows the students and teachers to understand the curriculum in detail. The University has continued with the semester pattern. For LL.M. Course, the university has provided 4 semesters.

CREDIT SYSTEM

It allows a student to have strong footings in the basics of a subject which he has studied. It also allows a student to develop the abilities a student has in the subjects of his interests. The curriculum has introduced the Choice-based Credit System so that a student who is interested in a subject of another disc can opt which any hurdle and develop interdisciplinary approach which is needed of law subject. The university has provided total of 64 Credits.

SPECIALIZATION OF SUBJECT

The curriculum has introduced specialization (Clusters) in two subjects i.e. International Law and Corporate Law. The important thing is the specialization starts with the first semester of the course. The specialized subjects are divided into four papers so that the candidate should be able to have an depth understanding of the subjects of his interest. International Law is divided into four papers a) Introduction to International Law b) International Institution c) Private International Law and d) International Economic Law.

The Business law is divided into Principles of Corporate Law b) Law of Contract- General Principles c) Consumer Law and d) Banking and Negotiable instrument.

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

The Internal and External examinations will have an equal weightage of 50% each. As a part of regular internal assessment of the candidate, the Post Graduate Department has to take many research Activities throughout the LL.M. Course which includes Longish Term Papers (LTP), Seminar Presentations, Doctrinal Research, Non- doctrinal Research, Class Teaching, Book Review, Case Studies, and Dissertations, etc.

- Longish Term Papers (LTP) are provided for 15 marks which are divided into 10+05, 10 Marks for research paper and 05 marks for viva voce. Every student has to take two LTP's in a semester. LTP's are provided for first two semesters of first year.
- Seminar Presentations are provided for 15 marks which are divided into 10+05, 10 Marks for research paper and 05 marks for presentation of the paper. Every student has to take two seminars in a semester. Seminars are provided for first two semesters of first year.

- Doctrinal Research & Non-Doctrinal Research has been provided for second semester of first year of LL.M. Both, Doctrinal & Non-Doctrinal research is for 25 marks each.
- Class Teaching is very important part of LL.M. Course. It is expected that the student should take one topic of academic important and give a lecture on it before the graduate students. The faculty of that subject will give independent report of the class teaching but at the same time it is great opportunity for a student to face students in actual class room. This activity has been provided in second semester for 25 marks by the University.
- Book Review is provided in third semester of LL.M. Course. It is expected that the student should review a law book. This activity is for 15 marks.
- Case Study is essential part of last semester (IVth) of the LL.M. Course. It is expected that the student should undertake in-depth study of a particular area of research. This activity is provided for 15 marks.
- Dissertation is one of most important research activity provided by University. It starts with third semester of the Course. This activity is providing for 200 Marks, 150 marks for Dissertation and 50 marks for viva voce. It is mandatory that for evaluation of Dissertation and viva voce the external examiner is required.
