EDITORIAL

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce & present Inaugural issue of SCLC Law Review. This journal is an attempt by our institution to unfold & discuss issues pertaining to Law. In the era of Technology & globalization many laws & legal institutions stumble to cope with new challenges. Rapidly changing governmental policies, enactment of new laws sometimes encroaches on our basic human rights. India as a Nation moving fast in all spheres to get recognized as developed country at global level but such developments also poses threats like environmental issues, economic instabilities etc. We at SCLC being part of Legal Fraternity would like to address these issues through SCLC Law Review. In future, we expect contribution from academicians from all corners of India to enlighten us on various legal issues with appropriate solutions. This Journal is perfect platform for addressing various issues related to Law at National & International level.

Here I would like to take an opportunity to convey my heartfelt thanks to Hon'ble B.G. Jadhav -Executive President of Marathwada Mitra Mandal, Pune & management members of MM for their constant guidance & support in bringing out this Journal. I also convey my gratitude to Co-editor, advisory members, Associate Editors, Assistant Editors & entire team of SCLC Law Review for their relentless efforts in publishing First issue of this Journal.

We have received overwhelming response in first attempt & team of SCLC Law Review has selected 10 research papers for publication in its Inaugural issue. This SCLC Law Review focuses on Governor, National Commission for Protection of Child Rights, Child Delinquency, Role of NGO in Education, Elderly Victimization, Health and Education of Street Children in India, Acid Attacks, Relationship between International Law and the Municipal Law, Media's Role, Secularism And Religious Rights Of Muslim, etc.
