Letter of Reference

Date: 29/08/2019

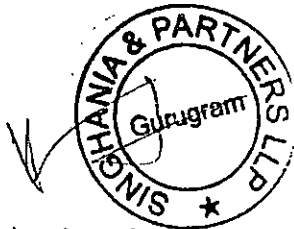

To whomsoever it May Concern,

I am writing this letter to recommend Simran Deshpande as a potential intern in your esteemed office. She had interned with Singhania and Partners LLP, for a period of Two months 19 days (June 10–August 29, 2019). I can most assuredly attest to her strong work ethics and the diligence she possesses in the execution of the duties delegated therewith.

Moreover, Simran is the kind of intern who can adapt easily to the pressures in the bulk of workload and requires little to no supervision. Further, she is a good and respectful intern towards her co-interns and the company employees including the Associates and the Partners in the firm. She has got good research skills and has demonstrated an eagerness to learn. She has strong interest in studying law & will subsequently excel in her legal career.

For any further queries with regards to the background, qualifications and the truth and veracity of her tasks within the company, please contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Arjun Anand
