INTRODUCTION

Being established through an inspiration of socially and educationally charged personalities, we, Marathwada Mitra Mandal, established in 1967 as a charitable trust, serve with a motto 'Yethe Bahutanche Hit' (Welfare of Masses). Under the patronage of Marathwada Mitra Mandal, Shankarrao Chavan Law College was established in 2003 with the objective of nurturing future legal professionals and researchers with ideals and values required for playing a constructive role to create a better world. The College is affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University, approved by the Bar Council of India, recognised by the Government of Maharashtra with an ISO Certification and accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC. EDITORIAL

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce and present the third volume, first issue of Marathwada Mitra Mandal's SCLC Law Review. This journal is an attempt by our institution to unfold and discuss issues pertaining to Law. In the era of technology and globalisation, many laws and legal institutions stumble to cope with the new challenges. Rapidly changing governmental policies and enactment of new laws sometimes encroaches on our basic human rights. India as a nation is moving fast in all spheres to get recognised as a developed country at the global level but such developments also pose threats like environmental issues, economic instabilities, etc. We at SCLC, being part of the legal fraternity, would like to address these issues through MM SCLC Law Review. In future, we expect contribution from academicians from all corners of India to enlighten us on various legal issues with appropriate solutions. This Journal is a perfect platform for addressing various issues related to Law at the national and international levels.

Here, I would like to take the opportunity to convey my heartfelt thanks to Hon'ble B.G. Jadhav, Executive President of Marathwada Mitra Mandal, Pune, and the Management members of MM, for their constant guidance and support in bringing out this Journal. I also convey my gratitude to the Editor, Co-editor, advisory members, Associate Editors, Assistant Editors and the entire team of MM SCLC Law Review for their relentless efforts in publishing the first issue of this journal.

We have received an overwhelming response for the third volume. The MM SCLC Law Review Third Volume focuses on Legitimacy and Constitutional Limits of Anti-Conversion Laws in India; The Impact of Artificial Intelligence (AI) on Gender Dynamics in Human Right Protection Guaranteed Under Indian Constitutionalism; A Critical Analysis of Surrogacy Law in India; Fostering Accessibility under Indian Copyright Law with special reference to Disability; Right to Privacy through the Lens of Surveillance Capitalism: A Comparative Analysis; Navigating Jurisdictional Autonomy: Unravelling the Kompetenz-Kompetenz Principle in Global Arbitration Practices; Divergent Approaches in Bio-Medical Waste Management: Environmental Implications and Human Rights Infractions.
