EDITORIAL

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce and present the fourth volume, first issue, of Marathwada Mitra Mandal's SCLC Law Review. This journal is an attempt by our institution to unfold and discuss issues pertaining to Law. In the era of technology & globalization, many laws and legal institutions stumble to cope with new challenges. Rapidly changing governmental policies and enactment of new laws sometimes encroach upon our basic human rights. India as a nation is moving fast in all spheres to get recognized as a developed country at the global level but such developments also pose threats like environmental issues, economic instabilities, etc. We at SCLC, being a part of the legal fraternity, would like to address these issues through the MM SCLC Law Review. In future, we expect contributions from academicians from all corners of India to enlighten us on various legal issues with appropriate solutions. This Journal is the perfect platform for addressing various issues related to Law at the national and international levels.

Here, I would like to take the opportunity to convey my heartfelt thanks to Hon'ble B.G. Jadhav - Executive President of Marathwada Mitra Mandal, Pune, and the management members of MM for their constant guidance and support in bringing out this Journal. I also convey my gratitude to the Editor, Co-editor, advisory members, Associate Editors, Assistant Editors, and the entire team of MM SCLC Law Review for their relentless efforts in publishing the first issue of this Journal.

We have received an overwhelming response for the fourth volume. The MM SCLC Law Review Fourth Volume focuses on some Nigerian and ECOWAS issues such as Criminal Justice, Food Security, Human Rights, Constitutionalism, Environment, and Mediation. It also focuses on general issues related to Biomedical Waste, Restitution of Conjugal Rights, Citizenship, ICC, Disaster Management, Capital Punishment, AI, Encroachment on Grazing Land, Data Protection Laws, Bail, etc.
